DIGGING INTO THE FUTURE OF DIGITISATION: WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR ARCHAEOLOGY?

A Presentation by Brendon Wilkins (Dig Ventures) and Dan Pett (Fitzwilliam Museum) followed by a Panel Discussion to explore:

- Insights on the opportunities and obstacles for the adoption of technology-based approaches
- Concerns regarding: training of staff and generational marginalisation, costs of investment, compatibility of technologies for sharing, obsolescence of technology, infrastructure and changes in standards
- Future challenges (e.g. innovation, investment, storage, and even the climate crisis)

Confirmed Panellists: Daniel Pett (Fitzwilliam Museum), Duncan Brown (Historic England), Kasia Gdaniec (ALGAO), Ray Moore (ADS), Brendon Wilkins (Dig Ventures), Lisa Westcott Wilkins (Dig Ventures)
